

Youth-Led Worship

This past Sunday our young men led the worship services. We had several young men involved: Aaron Cox and Derek Vaughn led prayers; Derek Vaughn, Jake Hall, Alex Appleton, Dylan Harrington, and Kaleb Steele led us in singing; Andy Harrington, Aaron Cox, Noah Steele, and Levi Thompson read to us from God's word, and Quentin Riley, Andy Harrington, Gary McCaleb, and Dave Dodd preached to us from God's word. It was a blessing to be here and to be encouraged by these young men. We are blessed to have young men who are willing, enthusiastic, and serious about taking a leading role in the worship of God.

Super Bowl Night

This Sunday evening after services we will go to Chris and Kelly Smith's home to watch the second half of the Super Bowl. I will be driving the van, and we will return to the building around 9:20. If you want to pick up your children earlier you can pick them up at the Smiths'.

FHU Lectures

Next week I will be traveling to Henderson, Tennessee to attend the Freed-Hardeman Lectures. I look forward to this week very, very much. The FHU Lectureship provides: Rich Lessons-The Bible book that will be covered is Hebrews. There are many wonderful lessons to learn from that book. There is also a special part of lectureship for those who work with young people that is helpful to me.

Fellowship-I will see many of my dear Christian friends as they travel to Henderson. It will be an opportunity to strengthen relationships.

Beautiful Singing-To have a couple thousand people singing praise to God is so very powerful.

Encouragement-Praying with one another and showing appreciation for one another are a part of this week for me.

I am very thankful for the opportunity to go. I look forward to seeing you Sunday, and I hope that you have a great week.

In Him, Craig
