

Golden Age Banquet

This past weekend's Golden Age Banquet was wonderful. The decorations in the activities building were beautiful, the food was excellent, and the fellowship was even better. We had well over 100 people in attendance. I want to recognize our youth group for the outstanding job they did escorting people from their cars to their seats, greeting them at the door, and serving the food. Our young people seem to get better and better each year. I also want to thank those who decorated, prepared food, and set up and cleaned up. The day was topped off with brother V..P. Black speaking. I have heard many great comments about the day from many of our over-60 group, and many of the teens have expressed how much they enjoy this each year. I look forward to the next one.

Youth Devotional

Last Sunday evening John and Paula Harrington hosted a youth devotional in their home. John made his signature pizzas and they were enjoyed by all. I am thankful for the Harringtons opening up their home, and for Deena Whirley and Randy and Amy O'Bryan for helping with food. Our next youth devotional will be at the home of David and Deena Whirley on March 26.

I am so appreciative of the time that I was able to spend with V.P. and Lourine Black. I have never heard him in person. The lessons on stewardship are so very powerful. Knowing that the Bible has many, many verses dealing with the subject of money and how we are to handle it. I am thankful for the Blacks' long service to the cause of Christ in preaching the gospel. His teaching of God's word has produced positive results. God tells us that his word will not return to him void, and it has not. I also want to thank everyone for asking about my mom. We are now waiting for her house to sell in Memphis, and she will be moving in the next few weeks. Please continue to keep my family in your prayers. I look forward to seeing you Sunday.

In Him,

Craig
