

The Darker The Night . . .

A 67 year-old social worker is brutally slain as she gives a mother the opportunity to visit with her ten-month-old son.

Another United States Congressman resigns in disgrace as details of sexually explicit emails to teenage pages come to light.

At least one United States Congressman lives openly as a homosexual.

Numerous government officials have admitted to adulterous affairs or illegal actions.

Marriage counterfeits—“live-ins” and same-sex unions— abound in our country.

Fraud and falsehood drive insurance premiums skyward.

Kidnappings and molestation of children are now commonplace occurrences in the USA.

Lies on top of lies are told everyday—to the point that we almost don't know whom to believe anymore.

Pornography of every sort is only a mouse-click away from a computer user.

Open rebellion against moral restraint is rampant.

. . . The Brighter the Light

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, just as I have loved you . . .” (John 13:34)

“Walk as children of light” (Ephesians 5:8)

“Be kind to one another . . .” (Ephesians 4:32)

“ . . . let each of you speak the truth with his neighbor . . .” (Ephesians 4:25)

Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good” (Romans 12:21)

“You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. . . . In the same way, let your light shine before others so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.” (Matthew 5:14, 16, ESV)

—Lance Cordle