

Super Bowl Night

Last Sunday evening after services we went to Chris and Kelly Smith's home to watch the second half of the Super Bowl. I want to thank them so much for hosting this event this year. We had an excellent crowd attend.

Youth Devotionals

This Sunday night we will have a youth devotional at the home of John and Paula Harrington. John is making his famous pizza for everyone. I will be driving the van, and we will return to the activities building about 9:15.

FHU Lectures

This week I will be traveling to Henderson, Tennessee to attend the Freed-Hardeman Lectures. I look forward to this week very, very much. The FHU Lectureship provides:

Rich Lessons-The Bible book that will be covered is Deuteronomy. There are many wonderful lessons to learn from that book. There is also a special part of lectureship for those who work with young people that is helpful to me.

Fellowship-I will see many of my dear Christian friends as they travel to Henderson. It will be an opportunity to strengthen relationships.

Beautiful Singing-To have a couple thousand people singing praise to God is so very powerful.

Encouragement-Praying with one another and showing appreciation for one another are a part of this week for me.

I am very thankful for the opportunity to go each year and take part in the lectures.

I want to thank everyone for the kind comments that were given to me after the lesson Sunday evening. Next Sunday morning I will be preaching for the Benton church of Christ. Please keep me in your prayers as I travel to and from FHU and my preaching engagement next Sunday. I know that many are sick, and I will keep you in mind this week. Have a great week.

In Him, Craig
